

April's Core Value - Honesty

During these challenging times for everyone around the world, we at Miami Springs Senior High, encourage our students to always practice honesty, this month's core value. As students complete their assignments and take exams online, we want to remind them that academic dishonesty should always be avoided. In addition, students should stand up for their beliefs, resist social pressure, treat others respectfully, and be socially responsible. We hope you are all staying safe!