Paper 1 – practice exam.

Respond in a well-written essay, with reliable sources indicated in parentheses at the end of sentence; 600-700 words.

1. How far do you agree that people from history considered ‘great’ rarely deserve the title?
2. ‘Not too much, nor too little.’ To what extent is this the basis for a fulfilled life?
3. Assess the most important areas for government spending.
4. ‘Education divides, rather than unites, society.’ Discuss.
5. Can scientists ever justify being involved in weapon research?
6. Is there any point in predicting the weather when we have no control over it?
7. ‘There are more advantages to living in the countryside than in the town.’ Discuss.
8. ‘Children should be the product of nature, not of science.’ Do you agree?
9. Do languages spoken by relatively few people have a place in the modern world?
- 10 ‘Only the rich can afford works of art.’ How far is this true?
